Circulate and Baltachu. WE CAN WIN!

A WESTERN LIBERAL'S OFINION. WITH A FULL SOUTHERN VOTE, OHIO, INDIANA, AND PENNSYLVANIA CAN BE SPARED.

To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: The news from Georgia, following closely upon the patriotic speeches recently delivered by Mr. Greeley, tells a wondrous story. Our friends are jubilant, and we are again in the position we occupied immediately following the Baltimore Convention. Mr. Greeley's speeches have given great satisfaction in the South as well as at the North, and the results are already apparent. It seems as though 10,000 or 15,000 colored men must have voted with the Liberals in Georgia. I now claim every Southern State. I have heretofore given Grant South Carolina (7) and Florida (4), but I now place them on our side. A united Southern vote (138), with New-York (35), New-Jersey (9), and Connnecticut (6), gives us a total electoral vote of 188. It is quite possible to elect Mr. Greeley without Pennsylvania, Ohio, or Indiana.

colod. This is what the figures have to say about the chances In this canvass. It will be seen that Unde Horace's are very far from being desperate to-day, however they may look to-morrow. It will also be seen that Gen. Grant needs all the votes he can get.

DON'T GIVE UP THE FIGHT. IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.

Chicago, Oct. 9 .- The Tribune of this morn-

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The Tribune of this morning says:

The most noticeable fact of the canvass in these States, as well as in the previous ones in North Carolina, Vermont, and Maine, is that the Administration party had all the money, all the office-helders, all the election machinery, most of the large corporations, and all the adventitious aid which help to decide a doubtful contest. Another instructive fact is that a percentage of the Democratic vole was east for the Republican ticket large enough to offset the Liberal Republican to the large enough to offset the Liberal Republican vote in each of the three States. Authourh this change has resulted in the success of the thrist which we deem opposed to the best interests of the country, it points to a speedy dissolution of both the old parties, and this we cannot but regard as a benefit to the whole people. It is impossible that the Republican party should long hold together without any principles of the blacks are still in danger—which has after all been the most potent weapon of the canvass—being not true in point of fact, will not avail much longer. The Liberal party is the party of the future, notwithstanding the adverse result of yesterday is election.

To the Liberals of Illinois, to the Liberals everywhere, we say, Go on bravely in the path you have entered; your came is last, your principles are as necessary to the preservation of good government to-day as they were yesterday. It is still possible to elect your excellent State ticket in Illinois. We shall yield nothing in our zeal for Greeley and Koerners of the canvas and emobiling principles of peace, recordination, and reform, which are more precious to us thou any party of any men. ing says:

ples of peace, recordilation, and reform, whi more precious to us than any party or any men.

THE FIGHT JUST BEGUN.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] CINCINNATI, Oct. 9 .- The Enquirer (Dem.), after rejoiding over the Liberal success in Hamilton County against the leftnence of the office-holders, claims that the power of the Grant party over the county is forever broken, and that if we have falled to carry the State the blame rests upon the country counties. In another article, referring to the November election, the whatever may be the exact result of the elections, yesterday, in the three great states of Ohio, Indiana, and Pennsylvania, they must not in any event be permitted to relax the energies of the friends of Greeley and Brown. In comparison with the great battle of November, when a states are to be heard from, the fight yesterday was but a beavy skirmish along the lines. If we had been successful in Maine, it would not do to rest upon our laureta, for if we did we might and probably would find we had a victory at Ligny only to be decisively and forever brainen at Waterloo. Trite as it is, there is no motto that should be kept before the people as that "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty." Even if we find won the most glorious victory, we could not allow the waterlines beginning, or to have our sentinels less strongly posted in frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of our lines. But if deleated in any part of the frant of the great conflict of November.

We may rely upon it that Greefey and Brown are far stronger than any of our local candidates. There are, as we have shown from the beginning, thousands of Republicans who had made up their minds to vote against Grant and in favor of Greeley, and that nothing would induce to yote for any local or State ticket that was not labeled and understood to be Republican. We shall have the advantage of this vote in November, and it is far larger than the Grant men calculate on, as they will find to their sorrow. In the election just passed the Grant men had every advantage. They have put in them their millions of dollars, and exercised all the arts and appliances of corruption in order that by favorable results they much have a great effect on the States that were to vote after. These are the last State elections before the Presidential election, and we call upon our friends everywhere to be ready for the issue. Pay not the least heed to mere talk of the enemy that you have no chance of success. The wish is rather to the thought. Strengthen your lines and deepen your columns and press on to the enemy's works. What has been done thus far in the election is nothing compared to that which is to come. Let every eye be turned on November as the month which is to ensure, by the election of Greeley, the prolongation of American freedom.

A "STRAIGHT-OUT" NOMINEE DECLINES.

To the Chairman of the Executive Committee of the " Straight-out" Democratic Convention.

DEAR SIE: I notice in the published proceedings of the so-called "Straight-out" Democratic Convention held in Albany, on the 3d inst., I was made the elector for the XXIst District of this State, which position I most respectfully decline, on the ground that I believe this organization to be in the interest of Grant and his party. I opposed the nomination of Mr. Greeley before the Baltimore Convention, but since its decision have given him my hearty support, believing it to be the duty of every honest Democrat to stand by the regular action of the party. For over 50 years I have polled my vote with the Democratic party, and I am now too old a man to learn the unprincipled trick of bolting it. I therefore ask that my name be withdrawn from your ticket.

Respectfully yours, DANIEL BELLINGER. Danube, Herkimer Co., Oct. 8, 1872.

ASPECTS OF THE CAMPAIGN.

HOW POST-OFFICES ARE USED. The Grant people consider that all of the flices of the country are theirs to use for campaign purposes, just as though they were the private property of their candidate. The other day the Postmaster at Fort Wayne, Ind., sent out large numbers of campaign placards, accompanied by circulars inclosed in official envelopes, free, marked "Official business." One of these

FORT WAYNE, Indiana.

To Postmaster of Arcola, Indiana: Herewith I send you posters for a Republican meeting to be held here.

Aug. 10.

Please post these up in conspicuous places at once, giving it your personal attention, and not only oblige me but aid the cause, and write me of prospects.

J. J. Kamm. Postmaster.

Of course, it is useless to protest against such gross abuses of the public service; the President looks on the offices as his special perquisite; and Senators, like Mor ton, who put in such postmasters as that at Fort Wayne, will keep them in as long as they attend to posities.

"THE GREAT MORAL PARTY." Parists in politics will contemplate with stisfaction the names of the men who are saving the Republican party from defeat. The Springfield Republi can puts them up thus: CAMERON. MURPHY. HARTRANFT.

YERKES, of Philadelphia. O'BRIEN, of New-York. In such company as this we find Mr. Geo. Wm. Curti nd some of those estimable women, who find solace and comfort for their cause only there.

THE NORTH CAROLINA "OUTRAGES." Haven't the Grant organs overlooked the great outrage in Pitt County, North Carolina ! Some 30 citizens were arrested and brought to Goldsboro on charge of obstructing a United States Marshal and Commissioner in the discharge of their official duties. The sequel is thus related by The Raleigh News:

The sequel is thus related by The Raleigh News:

The cause of the arrest was on account of two personal difficulties which recently occurred in Pitt County—one between Deputy Marshal Roach and F. M. Smith, in whigh a man by the name of Wilson, a friend of Roach, was killed—the other between Mr. Hines, Editor of The Spectator, and Calvin Cox of Greenville. Both of these difficulties were of a purely personal nature. Upon the examination before Commissioner Robinson yeasterday at Goldsboro, he discharged all the prisoners, as the matters belonged to the State authorities, and had no power to interfere. Mr. Robinson pronounced the whole affair a farce, and the attempt to get the United States authorities to take cognizance of a personal difficulty as simply infamous. A number of the citizens who were arrested and brought to Goldsboro at very great inconvenience and expense knew nothing whatever of either difficulty, and were not present on either occasion.

If this had happened in North Carolina about the time

If this had happened in North Carolina about the time of an election, we should have seen a great indignation among the Administration journals. As it is, Georgia is the more promising field just now for these "Ku-Klux outrages."

GRANT'S SYCOPHANTS.

Mr. Wendell Phillips has already signified his desire to create a military dictatorship, with Grant at its head. The President has not yet made public his own wishes in the premises; but how he has been flat tered into considering this question was thus told by Gov. Palmer of Illinois, in a speech at Springfield the other day:

Tam not the personal enemy of Gen. Grant, and I feel bound to say that if he had, at the beginning of his Administration, called into his Cabinet, statesmen instead of the small incapable men who were probably thrust upon him by his service followers, his term of service might have illustrated our history. But his education was exclusively military. In the old army he was a subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose personal labits were not of a characteristic of the subordinate whose subordinates are subordinated to the subordinate whose subordinates are subordinated to the subordinate whose subordinates are subordinated to the subordinates are su was exclusively military. In the old army he was a subordinate whose personal habits were not of a character to compel respect. (Applause.) He falled in civilife after he left the army, and when called again into the profession of arms his success was so complete that he came to regard himself as a producy. That his head should be himself as a producy. That his head should be turned; that flatterers should be able to persuade him that he was superior to others; that he was above law, and should not be fettered by Constitutional rules that hound his predecessors, was not unnatural. It is too early to speak the truth in explaining his sudden rise; but all history demonstrates that the real enemies of the suddenly successful are those who flatter them. The flatterers of Gen. Gront—Washburne, Jones, Logan, Porter, Leet, Stocking, Berry, and many others who need not be named—are responsible for his failure. Eager to appropriate him to themselves, they excluded every great man from his councils, and they cursed the nation with what will be known hereafter as the lack-learning eathnet.

IEREGULARITIES ALLEGED AGAINST THE COL-LECTOR AT THE PORT OF BUFFALO. o the Editor of The Tribune.

SIR: The Government some time ago sent Mr. Liepold from Washington to Buffalo to examine into the affairs of the Buffalo Custom-house. Llepold came to Buffalo and took charge of the Custom-house, and upon counting the Government money found a shortage of between $3,000 and $4,000, which was reported to the Treasury Department. They instructed Liepoid to keep possession of the Custom-house until further orders, and Col. Daniels borrowed the money to make up the missing amount from Revenue Collector Kibbee. In using the Government Collector Kibbee. In using the Government money for his own private business purposes Daniels committed a crime for which he was removed from the Collectorship, and the name of John Pierce sent to the Senate by President Grant as Daniels's successor, but for some unknown reason Pierce's name was withdrawn and Daniels again reinstated. Collector Daniels acknowledged that he used the money which was short for his own purposes, but alleged that he was good for the amount at any time when called upon for the same. The appointment of John Pierce would have been highly satisfactory to this community.

LOCAL POLITICS.

WAR MEMORIES REVIVED GEN. BUTLER AND GEN. ROBINSON AT COOPER

The Hall of the Cooper Union was filled at on early hour, last evening, on the occasion of a rally of the Soldiers and Sailors of the Grant party, to listen to speeches by Gen. Butler, Gen. Robinson, and others. A large number of ladies were in the hall. At 8 o'clock, Gen. George H. Sharpe advanced from among the throng of invited guests upon the platform, and, after making a few remarks in reference to the late elections and reading a few telegrams, nominated Gen. James H. Wilson as Chairman of the meeting. Gen. Wilson, after returning thanks for the honor, said that objections had been made to the soldiers and sailors holding meetings, as tending to reopen the wounds of the late war, but he saw no reason why they should not gather up the results of their past victories Gen. Grant had been tried as man never was tried, and ad never failed, and he could not have grown avarielous and become a bribe-taker. Reform would be ruined by Mr. Greeley's election. Gen. Grant was faithful, dis creet, and wise; no speech-maker, no brawler, but a mar of deeds, acceptable in faith, invincible in arms.

An attempt was then made to read a long list of vice presidents and secretaries, but the confusion and crie-Gen. Butler obliged the reader to stop. Gen. John C. Robinson was then introduced. He said that every man who did not feel jolly should go West and buy a farm Horace Greeley, in his speech at Pittsburgh, had in sulted every soldier in the land. He could have had no sympathy with the Union soldiers, or he never would have done them such injustice. They meant to throw their ballots in the same way they did their bullets. The question at issue in this campaign was whether the party which crushed the Robellion should govern the country or those who tried to destroy it. The policy of the Government had been reconciliation, for which Gen. Grant had done more than Mr. Greeley ever could do. The South had been asked only to submit to law; and yet had originated the Ku-Kiux bands that defied law.

Gen. Roulmon proceeded to speak of the New-York elections, when the confusion increased, and such persistent calls were made for Gen Butler that his voice could hardly be heard, even from the platform. When the noise ceased he resumed, and spoke of his long acquaintance with Gen. Grant, maintaining that all the charges against the President's conduct and habits were false. Here the disgraceful noise and loud calls for Gen. Butler were renewed, and Gen. Robinson was obliged to decline to speak further.

Gen. B. F. Butler was then introduced by the Chairman "as a man of brains." When the applause had ceased, he said he appeared to discuss the principles at stake in his election. Principles are everything, men nothing, in this great Government. Tay villification of candidates was poor policy. Foreigners reading our newspapers would think that both of the candidates for the untry or those who tried to destroy it. The policy of the stake in this clection. Principles are everything, meanousing, in this great Government. Tae villification of condidates was poor policy. Foreigners reading our newspapers would think that both of the candidates for the Presidency were the vilest of humanity. Unfounded calunny never hurt anybody, or the speaker would have been dead long ago. There is nothing that has not been said against Hariranft, yet he has ran alcad of his ticket in Pennsylvania. The most important duty is to cuact laws and choose rulers. The people were asked now to change their rulers. The Kepublican party had held the reins of power for twelve years, and a reason should be given for thrusting it out. What could be desired that that party had not done. We are at peace with all the world, for no nation on the face of the earth dares to injure us.

Great Eritain has been forced to accede to our demands.
We have raised greater armies than the fabled hosts of Xerxes, Mr. Greeley sayathe soldiers and sailors shall be governed. Having saved the country, it is ours, and we will take care of it now. The soldiers are the people, so Gen. Grant cannot by the aid of the soldlers take away the rights of the people. If proof of financial power is take care of it new. The soldiers are the people, so Gen. Grant cannot by the aid of the soldiers take away the rights of the people. If proof of financial power is asked, we show that the national debt is being paid at the rate of 160 millions per year, and that taxes have been thrown off from every necessary of life. If prosperity at home is questioned, we prove that every business enterprise prospers. We have had no financial crises. We have a currency uniform all over the country. Our exports exceed our imports. Is liberty and equality asked? Under the Republican party there have been 4,000,000 men taken from slavery and madecitizens. We have given them the ballot, the emblem of an American citizen, though some good Republicans do not like this idea of negre equality. We have universal suffrage, as our principle is that every man is bound to obey laws, and should therefore have a voice in their formation. The Democratic party wanted local governments to decide upon the right of suffrage, but it should not be trusted to each State. As to equality, this is the doctime of the Republican party: "Every man has the right to the equal of every other man, if he can." (see Dix Was loudly called for, and said a few words predicting victory in November. The meeting adjourned about 10 o'clock. Addresses were also made outside by Gen. Sharpe and others.

BROOKLYN LIBERALS UNDAUNTED.

The Chairman was then called upon for a speech, and n response said that he was pleased to see such a large atendance of members, as it showed that the party meant work in the county. Speaking of the Pennsylvania election, he said that the Administration party had carried the State by the most glaring frauds, but to the Liberal party it would prove to be only a Bull Run, and serve to oring the true men of the country into the ranks for a grand rally in November. The frands in Pennsylvania ad given the State to the enemies of Reform, and the had given the State to the enemies of Reform, and the effect would be that some timid men would fall out of the Liberal ranks; but it was good that it should be so, for then the rank and file of the party would close up the ranks. They will never forsake their guns, but will stand firmly by them. (Applause.) The Liberals are flighting for a principle, and in the end must surely win against the common fee.

James R. Allaben of Delaware County was then intro-against the common for.

James R. Allaben of Delaware County was then introduced and said that every one was well aware that Pennsylvania had been carried by fraud and repeating, and he was sorry that the Republican party had fallen so low as to outrage the purity of the ballot-box. The Liberal party had lost, however, none of its strength, but numbered among its members all the good men of the Republican party of the past. He said that in the rural districts where he came from the men would not forsike the Liberal ranks as they were doing what they deemed to be right. The Greeley banner had 600 adnerents in Delaware County, where there were only two Grant met. He said that this contest was between the "jobbers" on one side, who were determined to enrich themselves at the public crib, and the honest men of the people who were desirious to have reform.

Ray W. Potter of the Twentieth Ward next made a brief address. The Committee was well attended and enthuslastic. enthusiastic,

NEWARK CHARTER ELECTION.

The Newark, N. J., Charter election took place on Tuesday, and resulted in a Republican majority of about 2,000. The Republicans elected 13 of the 15 Alder men. QUEENS COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

The Queens County Liberal and Democratic County Conventions were held at the Court-house, North Hempstead, on Tuesday afternoon, but owing to contest ing delegations from the towns of Hempstead, North Hempstead, and Long Island City, the nominations were not made tutil a late hour in the evening. The Liberal Convention organized with Dr. Charles Rogers of Oyster Bay in the chair, and after appointing a Committee to confer with the Democratic Convention, adjourned, asking no place on the county ticket, but claiming the nemination for member of Assembly and School Commissioner for the 1st Assembly District. The following were nominated for county officers:

County Treasurer, Charles A. Roe of Flushing; County Treasurer, Charles A. Ree of Finshing; Super-need and the Poor, Thomas Pettit of Newtown; Cor-mer, Dr. P. D. Burns of Long Island City; Justice of the essions, John S. Suediker of Jamaica; Member of As-centile, Lie District, Was H. Gungdout; Sangel Com-Sessions, John S. Oakkey of Jamaics; School Commissioner, Otiver Losee. School Commissioner, Oliver Losee.

The Convention was the largest that has been held in the county for years. The following were selected as delegates to the Congress Convention to be held at Ja maica on Saturday: Delegates at Large—John H. Sut-phin, Wm. McCoy; Alternates, Townsend D. Cocks, James Bradley. Delegates—Jamaica, John H. Brinker-hoff, H. W. Reder; North Hempstead, James E. Valen-tine, Geo. W. Bond; Newtown, Oliver Crooks, Michael McGowan; Fushing, Renj. W. Downing, G. Ed. Carli; Long Island City, John B. Madden, Owen Slavin; Hemp-stead, Oliver S. Denton, John B. Pettit.

THE DAY AT CAMPAIGN HEADQUARTERS. The political headquarters were thronged with visit ors yesterday. Those who frequented the Grant Re publican beadquarters professed to be confident that the Liberals would not be able to carry three States in No vember. Ohio and Pennsylvania were conceded to the Grant Republicans, while Indiana was regarded as doubtful. Prominent Grant Republicaus claimed that the victories in Pennsylvania and Ohio would tend to disintegrate the Democratic party. Should Indiana de-clare for Hendricks and the Democratic party be kept together, the centest, they admitted, would be a close one. Congratulatory dispatches were sent by Cable to abroad at a late hour Tuesday night. The dispatches received during the night were as follows:
